FOOD DEALERS ORDINANCE IN EFFECT JULY 1

Health Inspector Is Given Wide Powers in New Law

Antioch's new ordinance regulating the sale and handling of all foodstuffs within the village will become effective July 1, President George B. Bartlett announced today.

The new ordinance which is intended to promote sanitation as well as provide additional revenue for the village provides for the licensing and inspecting of meat markets, groceries, bakeries, poultry markets and restaurants; also beverage distributing plants, all of which will be required to pay a license fee of $5.00 a year. This year, however, the fee will be prorated for the ten months remaining in the present fiscal year which began May 1. The $5.00 fee applies only to dealers having a regularly established place of business in the village.

Hits Travelling Vendors
A companion ordinance, which is also to become effective July 1, deals somewhat more drastically with vendors who peddle their wares from vehicles. Such vendors will be required to pay an annual fee of $25.00, and, as in the case of the food dealers ordinance, they first must procure a license from the village clerk. Established dealers who use any vehicle for the delivery of foodstuffs from their place of business are not required to pay the $25.00 fee, however, they will be required to comply with all other provisions of the ordinance.

The 14 sections of the ordinance relating to the handling of food cover almost all practices in sanitary methods of distribution, and the health department of the village is charged with enforcement of its provisions. Duly authorized employees of the health department may enter any and all premises specified in the ordinance for the purpose of making inspections.

Dealers and vendors who violate any of the provisions of the ordinance, or who refuse to comply with any order or direction of the health department are subject to a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $200.00.

Valid, Says High Court
The validity of such an ordinance has been established by a ruling of the United States court of appeals. While such an ordinance for Antioch had been in contemplation for several months, it was not until April 29 that it was passed and approved by the village board. It was ordered published in pamphlet form, and the board elected to await the convenience of an out-of-town printer. While it was intended to make the ordinance effective June 1, delivery of the pamphlets was delayed for over a month and only this week came into the hands of the village board. Since ten days must elapse after publication before an ordinance can be legally enforced, the effective date had to be advanced to July 1.

PITCHER BOB MADSEN SIGNED BY MILWAUKEE

Bob Madsen, sensational Antioch high school pitcher, has signed a contract with the Milwaukee Brewers and will report to their spring training camp in 1938.

Young Madsen's exploits on the mound won him recognition and it was because of phenomenal success that the Milwaukee manager wanted to see him in action. Accompanied to Milwaukee last week by Coach R. H. Childers, Madsen donned a Brewer uniform and showed his wares. He came home with the contract.

Recently Madsen struck out 20 batters against the Libertyville Young Men's club; and against the Fox Lake team he whiffed 15 batters. For the local high school the pitching ace worked in several one-hit games during the Northwest high school conference season.

KESSLER WINS RIBBON AS LIVESTOCK JUDGE

Leo Kessler, a sophomore of the Vocational Agriculture department of the local high school, together with 23 other F. F. A. boys from Illinois, held a perfect score in the judging of swine at the annual judging contest held at the University of Illinois last week. 396 boys competed. In the finals, Kessler placed fifth and was awarded a ribbon for his excellent work.

Opening Wrestling Show at Round Lake Arena Set for July 9

Professional wrestling—the sport that has taken Lake County by storm during the past three summers in the Haunted House open air arena at Round Lake, returns to the local sporting center Friday night, July 9, to open another season of thrills and spills for local sport lovers.

Through a new combination of Fred Kohler, Chicago wrestling promoter, Les White, Libertyville matchmaker, and "Peg" Behning, owner of the Haunted House Arena, the finest mat stars in the country will grapple under the stars in the compact outdoor arena. To handle the large throngs who are again expected to find their way to the matches every Friday, the entire arena is being rebuilt and enlarged, and the total capacity increased by several hundred.

Although no matches have been set as yet for the initial program July 9th, strings are out to many of the leading heavyweight and light heavyweight championship contenders.

YOUNG COLORED MAN DROWNED TODAY IN CHANNEL LAKE

Owen Bawdry Loses Life While Canoeing; Firemen Recover Body

Lake county's drowning toll was raised to five this morning when Owen Bawdry, 21, of Evanston, lost his life in Channel Lake. His body was recovered by Antioch firemen just before noon today in five feet of water just off shore from the William Pfleger residence on the west side of the lake.

Yesterday, Bawdry, a strapping colored lad over 6 feet tall, had come to the Pfleger home where he was employed, as he had been in previous years. Assuring Mrs. Pfleger that he could swim he was permitted to use a canoe this morning. Just before 11 o'clock bathers nearby saw the canoe overturned and the young negro floundering about in the water. A young Philipino, Pedro, employed in the home of Mrs. Charles Clingman, made a desperate effort to rescue the drowning man and nearly lost his own life in the attempt.

Antioch firemen were called and the life-saving squad rushed to the scene with a pulmotor. After dragging the lake for more than an hour the body was brought to the surface and removed to Strang's funeral home. An effort is being made to get in touch with the man's relatives in Evanston.

Graham Son Honored at Military Academy

Anton J. Graham, son of State Senator and Mrs. Richey V. Graham, received his diploma this June from St. John's Military academy, Delafield, Wisconsin. Graham, who is well known to Antioch in the summer months, enrolled at St. John's six years ago as a member of the seventh grade. In his six years as a cadet he has made a truly remarkable record, and honors were heaped upon him at his graduation. He was awarded the highest school honor, known as the Dr. Delafield medal for the most worthy boy. In addition to this he received the President's medal for the most soldierly cadet, and an Order of Merit medal for efficient service as a cadet officer. In athletics, Graham began participating when he first entered the academy and worked his way up through the Midget, Junior and Lightweight football team until he achieved a place on the academy eleven this last fall. The same thing was true of his career in basketball, which he began as a member of the academy "Featherweights" and finished by playing with the academy "first team" last winter. He played three years with the academy baseball team, of which he was co-captain this spring, and in addition to that he was a sprinter and broad jumper on the academy track team, winning his letter and gold award. He was the only cadet to win his letter and gold award in four sports this year. Graham was the senior captain, highest ranking cadet officer of the battalion during the past year, and commanded "C" Company, which was awarded the Efficiency Cup at Commencement for its achievements. His younger brother, Richey, Jr., will enroll at St. John's in September.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harrison of Waukegan called on Mrs. Andrew Harrison Friday night.

Parker Hazen spent Saturday in Chicago on business.

COACH BOB ZUPPKE AT WAUKEGAN TONITE

Famous Football Mentor Is Principal Speaker at Illini Rally

Robert C. (Bob) Zuppke, famous football mentor of the University of Illinois and the oldest coach in the big ten circuit, will be heard tonight at the Waukegan township high school where he is principal speaker at a rally of former students, alumni and friends of the university.

The meeting tonight is sponsored by the Lake County alumni association and was planned to stimulate interest in the state university, according to Jim McMillen, vice president of the county group.

The program, which starts at 8:15 p. m., will include a talk by Mayor Mancel Talcott of Waukegan, introduction of members of the executive committee, and a motion picture of campus life, entitled "Trail of the Illini." Admission is free and all friends of Illinois University and Lake county high school students, and graduates are invited as well as the general public.

Zuppke, Artist-Coach
Zuppke has been football coach at Illinois for 24 years. Although better known as a football coach, Zuppke is an artist of considerable talent. Jim McMillen revealed to a representative of the News yesterday. A few years ago Jim was doing his famous flying tackle on Coach Zuppke's squad and he came to know the veteran coach intimately. Bob Zuppke does not take his art seriously, nevertheless he spends his vacation weeks in the southwest doing art in oils.

Coach Zuppke has guided many Lake County boys to fame in Big Ten athletic circles. Among those who made football history at Urbana are Al Sayre, Waukegan; Jim McMillen, Antioch; Harry and Albert Hall, Waukegan; Ken Zimmerman, Gurnee; Walter Crawford and Tom McCann, both of Waukegan.

Gold Medal Awarded to Anheuser-Busch

A gold award for excellence of package design was received today by Anheuser-Busch from the All-American Package Competition in which 12,000 manufacturers competed.

The prize was won by the holiday gift wrapper which will adorn cartons of Budweiser Beer, in cans or bottles, next Christmas. The sponsors of the competition considered Budweiser's wrapper to be of such merit that they will exhibit it all over America, in England and Australia. It is now on display at Rockefeller Plaza.

The gay green-wrap, bordered with festive holly, bears a toast-to-holiday cheer by a smiling brunette with a glass of Budweiser Beer. On the side is a "from and to" card with a miniature sleigh and six tiny reindeer, carrying a carton of Budweiser. Dealers found last Christmas that there were plenty of beer-lovers to appreciate beer as a gift.

CARETAKER KILLS SELF WITH AUTO GAS—JURY VERDICT

Allen Thomas Takes Own Life at Sand Lake—Ill Health the Cause

Despondency over ill health is believed to have caused Allen Thomas, caretaker of the T. N. Donnelly estate at Sand Lake, to commit suicide Thursday by inhaling monoxide gas.

Thomas, who obtained his job as caretaker only ten days before his death, was said to be getting along nicely with his new work. He had been in poor health for six years and only recently was discharged from a sanitarium in Oak Forest.

His body was found at 6:30 p. m. when Mrs. Donnelly saw him slumped in an automobile in the garage. He had been dead for five hours, according to Dr. W. W. Warriner of Antioch who was called to the scene. The Lake Villa fire department squad was called also, but there was no hope of reviving the man.

A 20 foot length of garden hose had been attached to the exhaust on the car owned by Thomas and was swung around through the window of the car where the body was found. The body was removed to Strang's funeral home in Antioch. The jury at the inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner Maurice Penney returned a verdict holding that Thomas had come to his death by carbon monoxide with suicidal intent.

Beside the wife who lives in Lake Villa, he is survived by a brother and sister in England, also an uncle and cousin, Edward and Fred Bartlett of Lake Villa.

Funeral services were held Monday at Strang's funeral home in Antioch and burial was in Lake Villa cemetery.

An Authority on the Courts

Our courts are the balance-wheel of our whole constitutional system; and ours is the only constitutional system so balanced and controlled. Other constitutional systems lack complete police and certainty of operation because they lack the support and interpretation of authoritative, undisputed courts of law.

It is clear beyond all need of exposition that for the definite maintenance of constitutional understandings it is indispensable, alike for the preservation of the liberty of the individual and for the preservation of the integrity of the powers of the government, that there should be some non-political forum in which those understandings can be impartially debated and determined. That forum our courts supply. There the individual may assert his rights; there the government must accept definition of its authority. There the individual may challenge the legality of governmental action and have it judged by the test of fundamental principles, and that test the government must abide; there the government can check the too aggressive self-assertion of the individual and establish its power upon lines which all can comprehend and heed.

The constitutional powers of the courts constitute the ultimate safeguard alike of individual privilege and of governmental prerogative. It is in this sense that our judiciary is the balance-wheel of our entire system; it is meant to maintain that nice adjustment between individual rights and governmental powers which constitutes political liberty.

—President Woodrow Wilson in "Constitutional Government in the United States."

Who Foots the Bills?

Strikes cost money. That salient fact must be overlooked as violence steals the headlines. But as dangerous as it is when mobs run rampant through the country, halting mail trucks and interfering with other people who want to work, the long term factor that strikes are costly cannot be overlooked.

First, they are costly to the minorities who decide to strike. Secondly, they are costly to the greater numbers who are forced out of employment in their own plant or who are laid off because a customer plant has been closed or a source of supply cut off. They are costly to the shopkeepers, the doctors, lawyers and candlestick makers in every community. With losses running into billions of dollars, they are cutting heavily into the national income, out of which comes the living standard of all the people.

These factors are felt immediately by the various groups directly affected. But the toll that the present wave of strikes and compulsory wage increases will take in the future of the buyer of manufactured goods cannot be calculated.

Let's look at it calmly. From 70 to 80 per cent of the cost of manufactured products is labor cost. As these costs go up and up, the selling price of goods must go up too. That is when the consumer begins to feel the effects of an economy dictated by violence rather than by peaceful consultation. And the farmer, caught in the squeeze, finds himself pinched as the goods that he buys in the city become dearer and dearer.

Six Steps to Ruin

Unless the constantly widening gap between government income and outgo is closed, writes Roger W. Babson, one of the outstanding American economists, six financially ruinous consequences will result:

- "First, continued deficits ultimately lead to fear of government credit."
- "Second, unsound public credit means unwillingness to lend the government money to pay its bills."
- "Third, the treasury is forced to print paper money to pay its deficits."
- "Fourth, the paper money falls like a meteor in value as prices shoot sky-high."
- "Fifth, the buying power of salaries, wages, savings accounts, insurance policies, and bonds drops to practically nothing."
- "Sixth, the ruined, starving middle-class takes the reins of government by force to bring order out of chaos."

Mr. Babson does not think it too late to put the government's financial house in order but quick action is essential. On a per-person basis Federal expenses since 1860 have increased from $2 to $55 a year. The average American family of five has an income of $1,700. It owes as its share of the soaring national debt, $1,375. In addition to owing this debt it must pay $275 annually in Federal taxes alone. Only an aggressive public demand for retrenchment and a balanced budget can save us from the "six steps to ruin" Mr. Babson describes.

Foil the Summer Burglar

Summer is here and the burglar is getting out his housebreaking tools. There are six burglary, robbery and theft losses for every fire loss, according to the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives. The vacation months, when so many residences are empty and unguarded, provide ideal working conditions for the housebreaker. He does not have to be wary of sleepers who may wake momentarily and sound an alarm. He need have no fear that a dog's angry barking will reveal his presence. He can work leisurely and thoroughly.

If persons who are leaving their homes unoccupied even for a short time this summer will take the following precautions, they will add greatly to their protection and peace of mind:

1. Lock securely all doors, windows or other entrances to the house.
2. Inform the police that your house will be empty. They can keep watch on it and try the doors and windows at regular intervals.

3. Take with you or lock securely all jewelry, silverware, furs, valuable clothing and other articles easily converted into cash by a thief.
4. Be sure to suspend all deliveries, such as milk, papers, mail. A heap of newspapers or milk bottles on a porch are sure signs that a house is unoccupied.

In view of the increasing widespread threat of the burglary hazard to property, local citizens should take extra precautions at this time of the year. That is the most effective way they can aid crime control in the community.

The Fourth Branch of Government

Under the Constitution, we have three branches of government, each with delegated duties and powers—the Executive, the Legislative and the Judicial. The fourth branch has no name—but it might aptly be termed the Bureaucratic branch. It consists of a long list of quasi-judicial bureaus and commissions which have not only been empowered to administer properly passed laws, but in many instances exert a law-making function of their own.

The American Bar Association states that there are about 1,300 separate instances of transfer to enact laws from Congress to Administrative agencies, and that there are 73 Federal tribunals, exercising judicial power in 267 classes of cases. This fourth branch of government exerts its authority over four industries and affects the lives and livelihood of millions of citizens—yet it is hidden, and many citizens have never heard of it.

The growth of this power-seizing bureaucracy is one of the most dangerous developments of the times. In the interest of democracy, of liberty, of true Constitutional government, the fourth branch of government must be bridled and controlled.

Marks of Past Illness

Shown by Hair and Nails

Signs of past illness often remain long after the illness has ended. These are to be found where the circulation is poorest, viz., in the hair and the nails, says a writer in Pearson's London Weekly.

After a severe illness, you will often find that a ridge appears running across the nail and growing with it, advancing towards the free end as the nail gets longer. This is due to the fact that the illness has absorbed a good deal of the patient's strength and the circulation, in consequence, has not been sufficient to nourish the nails properly.

When anyone gets run down in general health, the nails frequently suffer in other ways, especially if the condition is a chronic one. They may become brittle and crack easily, while sometimes they are pitted with small holes as though they had been worm-eaten.

To restore the appearance of the nails you must, of course, first restore the general health. The principal cause of the debility must be treated, and when this has been done improvement in the circulation follows. As soon as the nails begin again to get proper nourishment they quickly regain their healthy look.

Ben Franklin's Magazine Benjamin Franklin in 1740 planned to issue a general magazine and outlined his project to John Webbe, an attorney, who was to be the editor. Webbe revealed the plan to Andrew Bradford, a printer, who proposed to issue a magazine in opposition to Franklin's. On February 12, 1741, Bradford announced that the first issue of the American Magazine, or a Monthly View of the Political State of the British Colonies, would be published the next day. On the same day Franklin announced that the first issue of the General Magazine would appear in four days.

Lion Fears Human Beings

The lion is not naturally aggressive. On the contrary he fears human beings instinctively. A lion's first thought is to escape when he comes in contact with man, according to a game hunter in London Answers Magazine. He only attacks when driven to it as a last resource in self-defense, or when a lioness is accompanied by cubs. Sometimes, too, a lion may become a man-eater through old age, toothlessness, and lack of game to kill. But contact with mankind is avoided by normal lions, unless, as sometimes happens, they are moved by curiosity.

Uncle Eben Saying "Money," said Uncle Eben, "is a little like religion. Nobody's got so much dat he wouldn't feel benefited by more."

Coil of Snakes

The rattlesnake is typical of the snakes that coil before striking. As soon as it is alarmed, it throws its body into a coil, with head raised a little above the rest of the body. When ready to spring, the muscles of the upper part of the snake are suddenly contracted, so as to straighten the body abruptly and thrust the head forward in a direct line. As the upper part of the body only is employed, the snake never strikes at a greater distance than one-third to one-half its length.

The University of Paris The University of Paris was founded by King Phillip II, between the years 1140-1170. The exact date is unknown. It was a development of the Cathedral School of Notre Dame.

Artesian Wells Artesian wells are the ones in which the water rises above the point at which it is encountered. If the rise is enough to cause the water to flow over the top of the pipe a flowing well is the result. All flowing wells are artesian wells. Artesian water is usually good water although it is apt to be rather hard. Water from deep wells, unless they happen to be in limestone, is as pure as any ground water can be. Pure water is a relative term for all ground water naturally contains some foreign material which it has picked up in its passage through the soil and earth formations.

Common Form of Insanity One of the most common forms of insanity is dementia praecox. Known also as schizophrenia, it frequently occurs late in adolescence or early in adult life. Its varying symptoms, says a writer in Pathfinder Magazine, include disintegration of personality, loss of interest in people, inability to take part in social or business affairs, incoherence of thought, silly or depressed behavior, mental delusions, and periods of deep stupor.

Meaning of Bumps Around Ears Grouped round the back of the ears are the bumps relating to possession, aggression and impatience. Immediately above and around the ear is a bump which, if well-formed, means that the sitter is quick to seize opportunities, says a phrenologist in London Answers Magazine. But if it is too highly developed, he is impatient and can be harsh and revengeful if thwarted.

MISS GLENNA ROBERTS AND PHILLIP SIMPSON
MARRIED HERE SUNDAYHigh School Romance Leads Popular Young Couple
to Altar

Miss Glenna Elizabeth Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Roberts of Lake Marie, and Arthur Phillip Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Simpson of Lake Villa, were married at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L. V. Sider before an altar decorated with white peonies, larkspur and huckleberry leaves.

The day was the thirty-first wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length white lace dress with a long train and a white rose-point lace veil. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Cornelia Roberts, sister of the bride, who served as maid of honor, was dressed in green lace with matching hat and carried Talisman roses. Fowlie Simpson, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Clifford Hook and Donald Cremin.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for one hundred and twenty-five guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house was beautifully decorated with garden flowers.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were graduated from the Antioch Township High School. Mrs. Simpson is a graduate of the University of Illinois and for four years was a teacher in the schools at Pittsfield and the past three years taught at Franklin Park. Mr. Simpson attended the University of Illinois for three years and is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan.

After a honeymoon in Northern Wisconsin, they will be at home in Franklin Park for the summer.

Rumsey, the Great Inventor
James Rumsey, soldier and mechanic, who made steam propel a boat 150 years ago, was born on Bohemia Manor near Warwick, Md., in March, 1743. A century and a half ago, on December 3, 1787, he publicly demonstrated a workable steamboat on the Potomac river at Shepherdstown, W. Va. Robert Fulton, who is credited with making the steamboat a commercial success, submitted his first plans a year after Rumsey's death on December 21, 1792. At that time, both Rumsey and Fulton were in London and apparently were intimate friends. Rumsey had gone to England to perfect his invention but died of apoplexy on the eve of the demonstration of his largest boat, the Columbian Maid.

LOUIS IS SECOND NEGRO TO WEAR HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN

(By Raoul George)

Joe Louis' meteoric rise to boxing fame reached a thrilling climax Tuesday night at Chicago's Comiskey Park when the Shufflin' Brown Bomber knocked out Champion Jimmy Braddock in the eighth round of their scheduled 15 round title tilt. A series of deadly rights and savage lefts from Louis' dynamic fists wrested the two-year old heavyweight crown from the head of the aggressive, loyal, and determined Braddock and placed it squarely on the head of the 1934 Chicago Golden Glove light heavyweight champion.

An estimated throng of 65,000 jammed the American league ball park to witness the execution in one minute and ten seconds of the eighth round. But the vast crowd knew Louis was the same Brown Bomber who massacred Max Baer; the same human mauler who flattened the massive Primo Carnero. Louis displayed the best form of his sensational career. He was fast; his punches found their mark with deadly effectiveness, and he wasn't slowed down by the retaliating smashes of Braddock. Jimmy must be given credit, though. The game and fighting Irishman lashed back time after time in vain attempts to even the count with this powerful challenger from Detroit—only to have a succession of dynamic rights and lefts from Louis' offensive guns block his path.

The opening round was as fast and furious as any ever witnessed anywhere. A succession of knock-out rights won the battle for Louis in the eighth and he thus became the second man of his race in boxing history to hold the world heavyweight championship.

Allendale Graduates 23 in Colorful Ceremonies

(By Raoul George)

Lake Villa, Ill. In Allendale's cozy little chapel 23 young men received their diplomas last Saturday. This contingent represented the Class of 1937 and it completed the first milestone in the lives of these graduates towards higher education and business life and success.

The commencement program for Allendale's forty-first graduating class opened colorfully before an estimated throng of 125 parents and friends in the Myers gymnasium. Mr. Thompson opened the exercises with a short introductory talk and welcome greeting extension to the visitors. Immediately followed the Salutatory address by Frank Turner and the Valedictory oration by Gerald Larson. The presentation of merit awards for faithful services throughout the community and recognition of outstanding athletes was included in the gymnasium program. Mr. Lewis E. Myers, Allendale's president of the Allendale Association, delivered a short but inspiring address to the departing young men.

Succeeding a brief intermission, a field drill was staged on the athletic field. This phase of the afternoon's ceremonies drew a hearty round of applause from the crowd. The throng then milled toward the Marian Farwell Memorial Chapel where hundreds upon hundreds of boys have been bade a parting word of love and friendship by Allendale's executives. With accommodations for only 110 people many were forced to wait outside while the Class of '37 made its last parting bow. While the sun was setting majestically behind a maze of threatening clouds, Allendale's new graduates filed out serenely—apparently intent to conquer new worlds and to make their impressions on forthcoming noteworthy achievements.

This Butter Grows

Butter from a tree sounds ridiculous, but there is such a commodity. The tree from which it is obtained is the butter tree of West Africa. The product is Shea butter, a finer product than the best animal butter, says London Answers Magazine. In South America, Nature goes one better, for the "milk tree" supplies the natives of Cordillera with a white liquid closely resembling cow's milk. When stored in bowls it thickens, and the top, when skimmed, tastes like good cream. The milk is fed to children and used in tea. Curiously enough, the tree is found only in barren areas and can be "milked" only during periods when little else will grow. The "milk" is obtained by puncturing the trunk and catching the sap as it slowly oozes out.

EVENING CAPES OF LACE ARE FAVORED

Paris Designers Applauded for Innovation.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The collections of the Paris couturiers have established a new use of lace, which is already a favorite for the season, in capes and coats of all lengths, and types. Vionnet and Lelong have both received enthusiastic applause for the capes they presented; Vionnet's full-length wrap for evening, with a hood that can be dropped back or worn over the head to protect one's coiffure, is extremely graceful and beautiful. Lelong designed a hip-length cape of beautiful duchesse type lace, with a little collar through which a cord was drawn, and with accented shoulder effect. Sheer lace lends itself particularly to the vogue for color combinations, and has been shown in many types of costumes with contrasting colors. Lelong's cape is in the new carnation shade, and he showed it over a plain crepe gown of Nile green. You can get no more picturesque effect for a complete evening ensemble, than on a brightly printed crepe dress worn under a cape of sheerest lace in white or black. The cape is more lovely when made quite full to fall in soft draped lines over the dress.

The hood on capes is a new feature that will be seen much during the next months. The capes are varied in pattern and length, some being of elaborate and very dressy laces, worn more for effect than for warmth, while others are of the fabric type laces, some in wool lace, and these make highly fashionable wraps that really give warmth on cool spring evenings.

SMART LINEN

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Place black, white and red together and the effect is not only striking but it is right in line with fashion's decree for this summer. Dark linens, navy, brown or black are particularly good style for suits and sports frocks. There is a sophisticated, or shall we say childish simplicity, about the black linen resort dress which Gertrude Niesen, film star, wears in this picture, which is most fetching. White appliques, bound with red, and red bone buttons give that bright touch which fashion demands this season. A large red cartwheel hat trimmed in white grosgrain completes this charming costume.

White Daisies on Black Make an Effective Gown

Rough black crepe printed in big white daisies is used for an effective spring gown that has a high front bodice and is suspended by a slender halter which leaves the back and shoulders bare. The gown, which is beltless, has a skirt that is cut circular to add fullness to the sheath-like dress. Two flat flounces are applied to the back of the skirt—one at the hips and one at the knees. A fitted ruching of black tulle edges these flounces and likewise makes an edging of the hem of the skirt.

STYLE NOTES

Suits lead the list. Brims grow wide, wider, widest. Call for costumes in cereal colors. Skin-tan tints are favored for hostelry. Gay gypsy strain runs throughout fashion. It's newest to wear two bouillonieres. Smocks of gay print are also used for summer wraps.

Carnation Motif Is Used in Charming Silk Prints

Carnations in single flowers or giant clusters are a new-looking pattern choice, done in colors or white on dark silk grounds. They sprawl over exotic evening gowns spaced so as to have one or two clusters on the skirt and a single one on the bodice. More closely spaced carnation prints in delicate indefinite designs appear in silks for afternoon and daytime costumes.

All-Nations Colored Team Trims Aces 14-3

Cunningham, star pitcher for Dr. King's All-Nations colored team from North Chicago, and seven errors by local players in a game played here Sunday afternoon were responsible for the visitors taking the long end of a 14 to 3 score. The dusky hurler fanned 13 Aces.

WITH LACE JACKET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This lovely lace gown has a matching jacket, which it should have according to all the laws of fashion. The idea of topping each dress with a related cape or jacket runs throughout the entire style program until now it has become a widespread accepted fact. Norman Hartnell, especially prominent for his coronation gowns, designed this very lovely evening ensemble. Both in London and Paris the flair for lace is at a high point of enthusiasm.

Romantic Jewelry
Massive bracelets and clips set with "sentimental stones" such as turquoise, corals, garnets, topazes and seed pearls are going to be worn this summer.

SEPARATE BOLERO IN LACE IS SMART

By CHERIE NICHOLAS
One of the many reasons for the great popularity of the becoming bolero is its ability to dress up a costume, or to vary it for you. You have only to slip one on over a simple crepe dress to achieve the effect that is especially attractive this year. Boleros are particularly prominent in starched cotton lace, in pastel shades and white. Several of these, in different colors, will enable you to get different effects with a single frock.

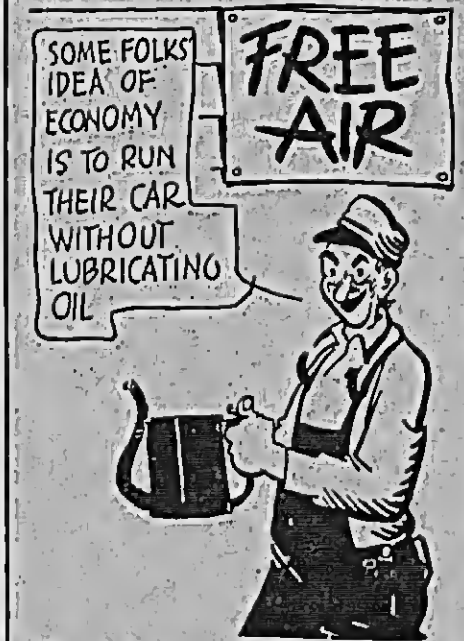

The simple, brief bolero would probably be most practical, for the lace pattern gives a dressy effect in itself, and the tailored pattern of the bolero makes it adaptable to all types of costumes. One very attractive design has short puff sleeves, and wide revers, with the short jacket slightly flared. If you can sew at all, it is the easiest thing to make. Such a bolero shows off to best advantage over a dress that is fairly simple, whether it be an afternoon frock, or a gown for evening.

Argentine Pass
The Argentine pass is a mountain pass in Colorado, not far from Denver. It attains an altitude of more than 13,000 feet and is one of the highest roads of the Rocky Mountains and in the world.

Conversation Counts
A child, a young man, an old man, any one is better able to hold his own in the battle for work, for friends and for personal security if he is able to hold his own conversationally.

Line of Beauty in Art
The term, a line of beauty, in art is applied to a graceful curved or undulating line, which is held to be absolutely beautiful in itself. Such a line is commonly represented as a double curve, resembling an elongated letter S.

LAKE VILLA

Miss Janice Kapple spent last week at Lake Geneva at Conference Point as one of a group of four girls from Antioch High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glosser of Maywood spent several days last week at the Atwell home and took care of some necessary affairs of business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Pickering of Chicago were guests of Mrs. Pickering's sister, Mrs. G. P. Manzer and family Saturday and Sunday nights.

Ronald Sonnenberg is spending two weeks with relatives at Westburg, Wis.

Billy and David McGlashan came from Chicago last week to spend a few weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGlashan.

Rev. Allen who comes from near Des Moines, Iowa, has been appointed as pastor to fill out the time until conference and preached here on Sunday morning. He will be absent from here for two weeks while attending to necessary business at his home, then expects to move here with his family. For the next two Sundays the pulpit will be filled by visiting pastors and you are very welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell and Helen Ann of Chicago spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slazer are receiving congratulations on the birth of their third daughter at St. Therese hospital on Sunday morning, June 20. The three sisters have one brother.

Phil Anderson and his mother have moved from their former home at Millburn and are occupying their new home which has been completely remodeled. We hope they will be very happy in our village.

Allan Thomas, who was caretaker at the Donnelly home at Sand Lake, committed suicide by inhaling gas from a running motor in the garage at the Donnelly place while in a fit of despondency last Thursday. He had been in poor health for some time but his friends thought that he had fully recovered. The body was found by Mrs. Donnelly and upon examination, it was decided that he had been dead for some time. Besides his wife who lives here, he is survived by a sister and a brother in England, also an uncle and cousin, Mr. Edward and Fred Bartlett of this place. The funeral was held at the Strang undertaking parlors on Monday afternoon and burial was in Lake Villa cemetery.

Mrs. Paul Avery who is a patient in St. Therese hospital, is improving.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held Wednesday, July 7, with Mrs. Mary McGlashan at her home and at this time the birthdays of April, May and June will be celebrated. All are very welcome and a picnic dinner will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and mother, Mrs. Mary Miller of Chicago are spending the summer at the Miller bungalow near the Wilhoit cottages on Cedar Lake.

Dr. M. H. Gindich made a business and professional call in Chicago on Tuesday.

Ben Cribb, eldest son of J. K. Cribb of this place, was married last Saturday evening, June 19, to Miss Beatrice Olson of Chicago in a pretty wedding at the Evangelical Lutheran church in Chicago at eight o'clock in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives. The bride's father gave her in marriage and Harold Cribb attended his brother, as best man. Close friends of the bride were her attendants, J. K. Cribb, his sister, Mrs. Belle Kellogg of Los Angeles, California, John and Jean Cribb from here and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cribb of Waukegan attended. The young couple will be at home to their friend on the east side of Deep Lake for the summer and their many friends join in wishing them a long life of happiness.

Clyde Shultis, who has been a patient at the Lake County general hospital for several weeks, passed away Sunday after an extended period of helplessness, and the funeral was held from the Strang undertaking parlors at Antioch on Tuesday, with burial in Fox Lake cemetery. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shultis, pioneer residents of this community, and has lived here all his life. One brother, Rolla Shultis, of Antioch, survives besides nieces and nephews and other relatives.

The annual reunion of the Kapple family was held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hazel Dibble at Petite Lake and in spite of the rain which made it necessary to alter some of the plans, a splendid time was spent by the sixty or more people present. Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Pickering of Chicago were in charge of the arrangements, including the program during the afternoon. Mr. Pickering has spent much time in tracing the history of the Kapple family back for several generations and his listeners found it interesting. Fritz and Al Boehm furnished music and Mrs. Paul Avery who was unable to be present sent an original poem for the group. All were descendants of Albert and Corena Kapple who took up land from the government in 1840, just east of the present village of Grayslake, and a part of this land is still occupied by their descendants. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Pickering, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Diltz and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rodgers and John Rodgers, all of Chicago, the Willard Keefe and John Shoenfeldt families, Mrs. Marguerite Jamieson and children and Mr. Ad. Diltz of Waukegan, Mr. and lams and daughters, George Fredericks, Madge Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greenwood of Libertyville, besides many from the Lake Villa vicinity.

When the mayor returns he will have acquired possession of a number of cows, a few horses, some farm machinery and a desire to spend a few hours in Chicago as possible, between now and the next cold spell. The cows and farm machinery are to be shipped to the mayor's country home in Fox Lake, which the Mayor expects to develop into a fine livestock farm.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

FEEDING children when released from school is a job at which they can and should be helpful. They can help prepare vegetables, learn to cook simple dishes and carry foods to and from the table.

Vegetables become daily more plentiful as local gardens come into bearing. More fruits are available at lower cost. Fish is fairly plentiful and moderate in price. Poultry is a good value. Veal and lamb are the best meat values. Smoked meats and beef are high. Eggs, butter, and cheese have apparently reached their lows for the season. Seasonable foods make up the following menus.

Low Cost Dinner
Shoulder Pork Chops
Creamed Potatoes Green Beans
Bread and Butter
Blackberry Pie
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner
Beef Pot Roast Baked Potatoes
Squash Creole
Bread and Butter
Banana Cream Cake
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner

Gold Most Malleable

Gold is the most malleable of all metals and the minimum thickness to which it can be beaten with patience and skill is not known for certain. A single grain of gold has been beaten into a leaf having an area of seventy-five square inches. Commercial goldleaf ranges in thickness from 200,000 to 250,000 leaves to the inch.

Settlers Protected Forests

The first settlers in America were wiser than many of their descendants, for they recognized the value of forests, passed laws to protect them. Special permission had to be gained to cut trees in Plymouth colony; William Penn demanded that one acre of forest remain untouched for every five cul.
